HEAT WAVE COVERS MUCH OF NATION

OLD MAN SUMMER SCORCHES HIS WAY INTO MANY SECTORS

THUNDERSTORMS, WIND AND HAIL ADD TO DISCOMFORT OF SUMMER HEAT

(By The Associated Press.)
Most of the United States sweltered today in a heat wave which promised to break seasonal records for many places.
Two deaths caused by heat were reported from Detroit and one from Newark, N. J., during the early hours.
In Missouri and Kansas the mercury edged toward the 100 mark. It was somewhat cooler in Oklahoma and Texas.
At Phillipsburg, Kas., yesterday a maximum of 105 degrees was recorded.
Philadelphia at 8 a. m. saw the thermometer go to 85, five degrees higher than at the same hour yesterday.
Hope for relief in numerous places was pinned on showers predicted by the weather bureau for tonight. The bureau reported generally warmer weather in the Canadian northwest, the Dakotas, Ohio and Tennessee valleys and middle Atlantic states and southern New England.
Other high temperatures before noon today were Atlanta 92; Birmingham 89; Memphis 95; Detroit 74; Syracuse 74; Louisville 84; Providence, R. I. 80; Washington, D. C. 88; New Haven, Conn. 82; Boston 79; Richmond, Va. 80.
There were no complaints from the Pacific coast where the weather was cool.

(By The Associated Press.)
The nation was scorched Wednesday by a summer sun which apparently does not plan a holiday today.
Thunderstorms, wind and hail added to the discomfort and caused property damage. Lightning bolts killed two. One death was attributed to the heat.
But being mid-July, the high temperatures—many of them records—were not unexpected. Kansas when growers took advantage of drying fields to combine harvest delayed by heavy rains and floods.
Charles J. Hach, forestry official was killed by lightning at a Montana lookout station. Ten-year-old Norman Neal of Rancho, Idaho, was struck down while riding a horseback. The heat death occurred at Detroit, where the mercury ascended to 94 to break a 54-year-old record for July 13 before a cooling rain fell.

SENATE COMMITTEE WILL SCAN LOAN TO DAWES' ASSOCIATES

INFORMATION SOUGHT ON ALL LOANS MADE BY FINANCE CORPORATION

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—An inquiry into every loan that has been made by the reconstruction corporation was undertaken today by a special committee of the senate which is studying the reorganization of the corporation.
High up in the committee's program was the design to scan the $80,000,000 that went to the Central Republic Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, of which Charles O. Dawes, former head of the corporation, is chairman.
That loan has been cited in congress as the largest to any bank, some voicing suggestions of favoritism.
The request for a detailed report of loans was embodied in a letter from Chairman Coughens of the special committee to Eugene Meyer, head of the board.
"I am authorized by the committee to ask you to furnish us as quickly as possible a complete list of all loans, the date of making, the rate of interest and security pledged, since the organization of the corporation," Coughens wrote.
Details of the loans will not be made public. The committee was authorized to report whatever it feels should be called to the attention of the senate.
Mills Opposes Publicity
WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—Secretary Mills told newspapermen today he was "unfavorably disposed" to the clause in the pending relief bill which would give full publicity each month to reconstruction corporation loans.
Mills said he would not speak for the committee, but that as an individual member of the corporation's board he believed such a provision harmful.

Asleep Six Months

Patricia Maguire, 27-year-old Oak Park, Ill., girl who has been asleep for six months. Hers is the longest and hence the most baffling case of sleeping sickness on record, according to Dr. Eugene Trout, attending physician. Within the last two weeks research scientists, who have become interested in Miss Maguire's strange case, have obtained gratifying results with a serum with which they are experimenting for the first time.

CONEY ISLAND HAS HEAVY FIRE LOSS; THOUSANDS HOMELESS

MANY BATHERS LOST ALL POSSESSIONS SPECTACULAR BLAZE WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, July 14.—(P)—The heart of Coney Island was a three million dollar ash pile today, but the hands play on.
Fire that started in rubbish under the board walk—Coney Island's polyglot promenade—swept three square blocks of the resort late yesterday. It destroyed:
Fifty bungalows and houses; six bath houses and bathing pavilions; 200 parked automobiles; the Pergola; the "Streets of Bagdad," an amusement place; a small private apartment building; five blocks of the board walk and most of the buildings fronting on it. That was the principal destruction. Two score houses and several business places were damaged by fire.
Many thousands were made homeless. At least 5,000 bathers among the 25,000 in the surf at the time lost their clothes and personal possessions as the fire destroyed bath houses in which their clothes were locked.
Two hundred persons were injured seriously enough to need first aid attention.
Every piece of fire apparatus in Brooklyn was called out. Darkness was falling before the fire was under control. It was still smoldering today.
It was the biggest fire Coney Island ever had and it was a great free show for the 150,000 men, women and children who watched it. Twenty-five thousand persons in bathing suits stood along the beach, to the edge of which the fire came, and watched.
Many thousands, at the first sight of the fire, dashed for the bathing houses and succeeded in getting their clothes. About two thousand others, intent on watching the fire, forgot their clothing.

REPRIEVE SAVED WHITE YOUTH AND NEGRO FROM DEATH

JACKSON, Miss., July 14.—(P)—An executive reprieve saved Paul Wexler, 19-year-old Hattiesburg youth, and Andrew Prince, 21, negro, from the gallows where they had been scheduled to hang at noon today for the slaying last Dec. 9 of J. L. Odum, filling station operator.
Governor Bennett Connor granted a 15-day reprieve last night, stating he desired to further investigate the case of young Wexler. The plea for commutation had been based on the ground the youth was not mentally responsible.
Wexler received the news with a smile while the negro became gleefully excited. The governor has announced that action on the Wexler plea would govern both.
Odum was fatally shot in the abdomen at his station in Hattiesburg when he resisted the robbery which netted $20. The slaying was said to have culminated a series of holdups by the pair.

TEXT GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT IS MADE PUBLIC THURSDAY

AGREEMENT WILL BE VOID IF WAR DEBTS SETTLEMENT MEETS FAILURE

(By The Associated Press.)
The "gentlemen's agreement" arrived at secretly toward the end of the Lausanne reparations conference has been published in full, presumably at the request of the British government which was criticized in parliament for having participated in it.
The text revealed that the signatories agreed not to ratify the reparations treaty written in Lausanne until they had made a satisfactory settlement of their own debts.
In the words of the agreement, if that satisfactory settlement is not reached, "the legal position of all the interested governments would become what it was before the Hoover moratorium." And "in case the settlement in question can not be obtained, the accord with Germany will not be ratified."
In that case, the agreement provides that if Germany's creditors can not obtain a settlement of their own debts, most of them to the United States, "a new situation will be created and the interested governments will have to agree on what they should do," presumably at another conference, but at any rate "the Lausanne agreement will not be ratified by the creditor governments."
Complicating the situation even further is the new "accord of confidence" which France and Great Britain have reached and which they have invited the other European governments to join.
What makes it complicated is that the two signatories appeared to interpret it differently. Great Britain insists that it has nothing

ARGENTINE-URUGUAY BREAK BRINGS MORE TROUBLE IN SOUTH

BOILING CAULDRON SOUTH AMERICAN DISSENSIONS GET NEW ADDITION

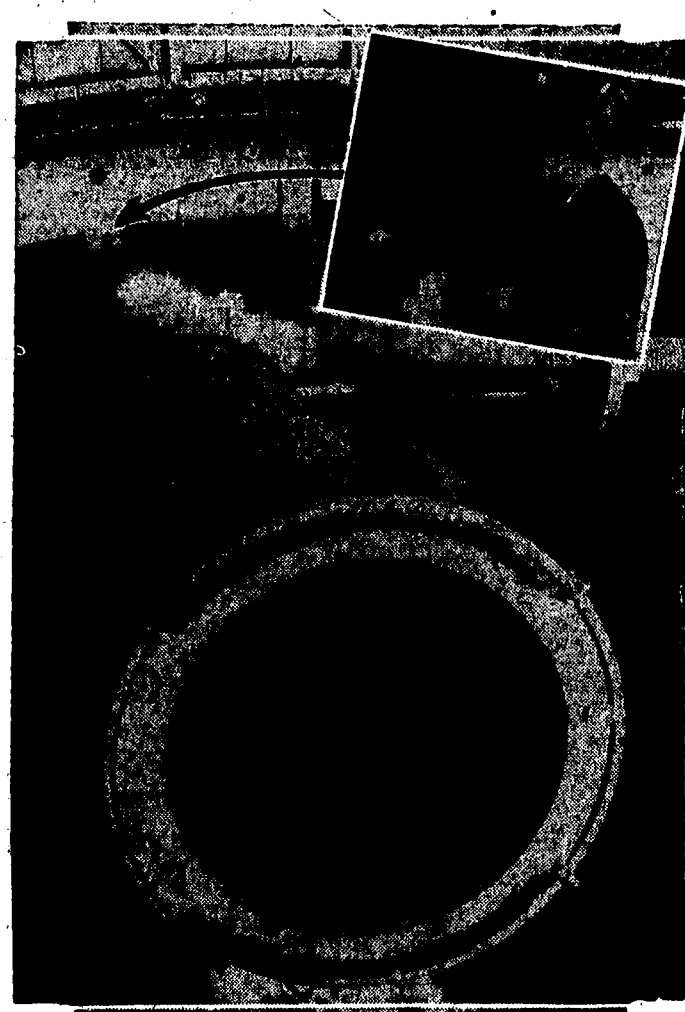

BUENOS AIRES, July 14.—(P)—A complete and added between Argentina and Uruguay added another chapter today to the boiling cauldron of South America's dissensions.
Revolts in Brazil, in Peru and in Ecuador; the collapse of the peace negotiations which sought to end the ancient feud between Paraguay and Bolivia over the Gran Chaco boundary dispute; and the rupture between Argentina and the Uruguayan republic, at her front door.
Fricked because Argentina showed a disposition to believe reports that General Severo Toranzo, former commander of the Argentine army and now an exile in Uruguay, was aboard the cruiser Uruguay when it came to Buenos Aires to assist in the celebration of Argentine independence day July 9, the Uruguayan government announced yesterday it had severed diplomatic relations with Argentina.
The report that General Toranzo was aboard the ship proved erroneous.
Last night Uruguay recalled its ambassador at Buenos Aires and invited the Argentine ambassador to leave Montevideo.
Confidence was expressed here that the breach would be healed soon but, in the meantime, it was said the problem of preserving peace in the region will be more difficult because the break means an end to the cooperation of Uruguay in keeping suspected agitators out of this country.

FERGUSON CAMPAIGN WILL BE TAKEN UP AGAIN TONIGHT WITH SPEECH IN BRENHAM

By R. W. BARRY
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
AUSTIN, July 14.—(P)—Former Gov. James E. Ferguson buckled on his political armor today after reports of half a week and went forth to stump duty for Mrs. William A. Ferguson, also an ex-governor, contending with Gov. R. S. Sterling and others for the chief executiveship.
Having rested when he was not doing editorial work for the Ferguson Forum, weekly paper, since last Saturday, he was ready with three of the last six speeches of this campaign. He planned to speak tonight at Brenham, Houston county, where he long had been a favorite "champion of the people." Tomorrow night he was scheduled to tell the home town people of Governor Sterling in Houston why the "boat boy" of Chambers county should be turned out in favor of the state's first woman governor.

After joining hands last night with former Gov. Dan Moody in a campaign feature before an audience at San Antonio, Governor Sterling doubled back to Fort Worth, while Moody went to Corpus Christi.
After a speech at Fort Worth last night, Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls, third gubernatorial candidate on the stump, was scheduled to go through Central Texas, speaking at Waco tonight, Austin tomorrow night and San Antonio Saturday night.
Moody gave his usual denunciation of "Fergusonism" at San Antonio.

CORN BORER WILL BE GIVEN FREE HAND THIS YEAR WHILE GOVERNMENT RECOUPS FUNDS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—If the borer was going to spread 20 miles a year anyhow, why spend such large sums of money, federal quarantine regulations. Secretary Hyde announced late yesterday that since congress had cut his agriculture department appropriation to fight the bug from $795,000 to $265,000 the quarantine would have to be lifted tomorrow.
The insect already has cost the federal government around $20,000,000. This year the house appropriations committee decided that in the general economy drive the allowance could be reduced since Nils A. Olsen, chief of the bureau of agricultural economics, testified:
"The corn borer has gotten away from us. We evidently can not stamp it out. The present position of entomologists is that it is impossible to exterminate the pest and that it is likely to spread over the entire corn belt."
The committee concluded that

CONFEREES FAIL AGREE ON RELIEF MEASURE THURSDAY

CONFERENCE THAT WAS EXPECTED TO BRING QUICK RESULTS IS FAILURE

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—Congressional conferees hit a deadlock today over the new unemployment relief bill and decided to disband while the house group asked further instructions from the house as to how to proceed.
The conferees were able to reach no agreement on the house section providing for publicity on all future loans through the reconstruction finance corporation.
Representative Rainey, democratic leader of the house, and chairman of the conferees, said he would ask the house for further instructions tomorrow.
Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.) senate sponsor of the relief legislation, expressed the hope, however, that Rainey would act today.
Other controversies between the two houses were completely ironed out. The Glass provision for loans to individuals through the 12 federal reserve banks was adopted. Reorganization of the reconstruction corporation, by eliminating two of its offices, was approved. The conferees adopted the senate provision to prevent loans to financial institutions, officers of which have been on the board within a year.
Provision of the house bill authorizing a $7,000,000 construction program at military air fields was approved and the senate terms for government capitalization of regional agricultural credit corporations were adopted.
Conferees were not alarmed over the failure to agree, some of them believing the house would yield on the publicity provision.
All changes in the bill today were gone, however, and final action by tomorrow was somewhat doubtful.

Wichita Man Kills Wife and Then Himself

WICHITA, July 14.—(P)—Joseph A. Seals, 60, an unemployed painter, last night shot and killed his wife, Bess, attempted to kill his daughter, and another girl who rented a room at the place and then shot and killed himself.
Police said they learned Seals had been under observation for mental ailment several weeks and that only a few days ago his family decided to send him away for treatment, but had delayed.
Christine Seals, 20, the daughter, who with Miss Virginia Mitchell, 22, fled from the house under the fire of the pistol, said the man appeared from his bedroom shortly before midnight, fired at his wife and then turned the gun on them. Earlier in the evening he had acted queerly, the daughter said.
Folle expressed the belief that failing to find work had affected Seals' mind.

Develops T.B. Vaccine

Dr. William D. Frost, agricultural bacteriologist at the University of Wisconsin, who has climaxed twenty-nine years of research by development of a vaccine proposed for partial control of tuberculosis, up to Frost states that his vaccine "is not proposed as a sure cure or even as a sure means of prevention." He maintains that vaccines probably will prove most important in control of the dread disease and his methods of obtaining a vaccine renders the bacilli physically harmless.

EMERGENCY RELIEF FOR AGRICULTURE IS UP TO HOUSE

NORBECK MEASURE, APPROVED BY SENATE, BEFORE HOUSE THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—While the house rules committee withheld action on the Norbeck farm relief bill passed yesterday by the senate, democratic leaders in the house said today they had been unofficially informed that if it were sent to the White House it would be vetoed.
It is up to the rules committee to decide whether the bill should be given priority in the house for a vote before the imminent adjournment.
It was understood in house quarters that a number of senators who voted for the measure now were looking at it askance, because of doubt as to its constitutionality.
The measure provides a tax and a tariff, some republican and democratic house members claim. Under the legislation all tax and revenue measures must originate in the house.
There was no official word as to President Hoover's position, but it was clear on Capitol Hill that he was believed strongly opposed to the legislation.
Both bills are the same in principle.

ITALY AND BELGIUM JOIN ENGLAND AND FRANCE IN ACCORD

BRITISH LEADERS DENY UNITED STATES WAR DEBTS ARE INVOLVED

(By Associated Press)
Italy and Belgium have joined France and Great Britain in their new consultative pact by which each agrees to consult the other in all matters of mutual interest.
The day brought several new official statements regarding this and the other agreements which came out of the Lausanne reparations meeting but there was nothing to clear up what appeared to be a difference in interpretation of the consultative pact by its two principal signatories.
The British government reiterated, more firmly than the first time, that the pact has nothing to do with debts to the United States. The French contention, expressed yesterday by Premier Herriot, is that in the future Great Britain can not make new arrangements for debt payments without first consulting France.
The French stand was not elaborated today because this is a holiday in France.

HOOVER IS URGED TAKE FIRM STAND ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

FORMER SECRETARY INDICATES PRESIDENT TAKES TO IDEA FAVORABLY

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(P)—Leaving the White House this afternoon, C. Bascom Sloop, former secretary to President Coolidge, said he had advised President Hoover to take an "unqualified" stand on prohibition in his forthcoming speech accepting re-nomination.
Sloop said he suggested that the president declare approval of an amendment to replace the eighteenth amendment.
Although Sloop declined to give Mr. Hoover's reaction, he believed Mr. Hoover would follow his line.
Sloop, who is on the committee which will notify the president formally of his renomination, said the chief executive had told him the ceremonies would be held early in August, certainly before the middle of the month. Sloop quoted the president as saying the acceptance speech would be delivered in Washington. The south portico of the White House has been suggested.

WAS EXPECTED TO BE OPENED FRIDAY PART HIGHWAY 31 WILL BE LAST GAP BETWEEN CORSICANA AND EAST TEXAS ON THIS ROAD

Bids for the 20-foot concrete pavement of Highway 31 from Consolidated road district No. 1 line two miles east of Powell to Trinity River are scheduled to be opened Friday, July 15, at the meeting of the Texas State Highway Commission.

When this stretch of road is awarded, the entire distance from Corsicana to Athens and other East Texas cities will be under concrete.

A contractor is pouring concrete at the present time of this highway west of Athens toward the Trinity River and the McElwraith Construction company of Corsicana is placing the concrete on Highway 31 from Corsicana to the district line east of Powell preparatory to the pouring of the 20-foot concrete slab.

The road is being placed on the route by the McElwraith company between Corsicana and Powell and the dump has been closed and traffic on the highway between Corsicana and Powell is being detoured over the old route from Powell before the construction of the highway dump. As soon as the sand has been placed on the road, the pouring of the concrete will start.

The highway from the district line to the river is being constructed by the State and Federal highway departments and Navarro county is not participating in the construction. However, Navarro county appropriated $25,000 for the road and bridge fund several years ago toward the construction of the new Trinity River bridge between Navarro and Henderson counties. The cost of the construction of the highway from Corsicana to the district line east of Powell.

J. C. COMMISSION EXAMINER AGAINST PROPOSED RAILWAY

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—J. C. Wead, an examiner, today announced that the Interstate Commerce commission decline to issue a permit for construction of the Del Rio and Northern Railway proposed to be built from Sonora, Mexico, to Del Rio, Texas.

Wead said "the record does not indicate any urgent need for the proposed line."

"Del Rio and Eagle Pass," he said, "and the district surrounding them are served by the Southern Pacific and the service seems to be generally satisfactory. Existing industrial and agricultural conditions indicate little need of increased production of farm products and the estimated cost of traffic and revenue are believed to be optimistic."

"Further it is not satisfactorily shown that the applicant is or will be able to finance the proposed construction and the present markets offer no justification for the prices at which the applicant indicates its securities are to be sold. Again an extension of railroad mileage in this territory could be constructed more economically by the Southern Pacific and that carrier indicates its readiness to build such mileage as soon as needed."

Family Reunion In J. O. Rogers Home At Tupelo Monday

July 11 a family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rogers at the Tupelo community, honoring Mrs. Rogers' brother, J. T. Butler, of Denison, who has passed his four score years. Mr. Butler is the eldest son of the late Curry Butler, better known as Grandpa Butler, who spent many years in this community, serving as the now forgotten village blacksmith. He is a brother of Sam Butler, Corsicana; Will Butler, Drane; Mrs. C. H. Helton, Corsicana; Mrs. J. O. Rogers, Tupelo. Two sons, Henry and George Butler of Ennis; two daughters, Mrs. Tillie Garrison, Dallas, and Mrs. Myrtle Butler, Ennis.

Mr. Butler worked many years in the shop of the H. & T. C. Railroad Company, then located in Corsicana. Leaving this city, he located in Denison as an employee of the M. K. & T. Railroad Company, until having reached the age limit, he was retired.

Mr. Butler has lived to be blessed with his fifth generation and is justly proud of this fact.

Mrs. Rogers served one of her guests a delicious lunch, doing justice to this little community as a producer of good things to eat. Reading appropriate for the occasion were given by Misses Virginia and Edna of Cameron, great-granddaughters.

After having talked of old times and old times most of whom have passed on, Mr. Butler expressed his thanks for having this privilege of wishing the same for each one of the 37 guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Butler, Denison; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Butler, Ennis; Mr. C. Turner and son, Mrs. E. Adams, Misses Myrtle Butler, George and Nell Butler and Loraine Butler of Ennis; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Butler and family of Drane; Mr. Butler, J. H. Butler, Mrs. C. H. Helton, Mr. and Mrs. E. Helton, Mrs. J. O. Rogers, Rogers and son, and Melton Rogers of Corsicana; Mrs. J. A. MEMORY OF ONE NIGHT HAS KEPT JEWISH PEOPLE A UNIT

Wherever Jews Are Found, The Passover, With Its Reminders of Deliverance From Egyptian Bondage Is Celebrated With Jubilation --- Its Christian Significance

Now that the New World holds more than three million Jews, what once was to most persons a story in a book has become a matter of common observation and experience. The whole business structure of great cities, like New York and Chicago, is affected by the Jewish people, and which the Passover is best understood by Gentiles as the Jewish Independence day.

In Jerusalem, the concurrence of the Passover with the Christian Easter and the Moslem festival of Nebu Muz has often led to religious rioting. Every year it is an anxious time for the Palestine government.

In city ghettos, in humble homes and in rich palaces, the Feast of the Passover is kept wherever Jews are found; to memorialize the great deliverance from death and from Egypt, which marked the beginning of Hebrew nationality.

To me, the keeping of these Jewish memorial days in Jerusalem itself is particularly impressive. I have seen the Jews gathered for the sacred meal, and heard the singing of the Psalms. The experience is a thrilling reminder of the continuity of inexhaustible Judaism. In all parts of the earth, Jews have maintained this reminder of their origin, their unity, and their religion, while empires and whole civilizations have risen and fallen.

The Tablet by the Sphinx. Between the feet of the Sphinx, of late uncovered, stands a statue commemorating the accession of a Pharaoh who was not in direct line of descent. The Pharaoh who came to the throne after the Exodus. The theory is advanced by some students of Egyptian history that his older brother, the crown prince, was the first-born slain at the Passover.

We must wait for fuller discoveries by the archaeologists before we can know the Egyptian side of the story. The journey of the Jews in Egypt, and their escape therefrom. Meanwhile, the Bible's account is full and explicit.

After Moses had shown many signs and wonders to Pharaoh, including nine of the 10 plagues, and that haughty monarch had stiffened his neck and refused to let the Hebrews go, the tenth and last plague, most dreadful of all, was decreed—the slaughter of the first-born.

At the Sign of Escape. Ere the destroying angel visited Egypt upon his grim mission, the Jews were instructed to show a symbol of their allegiance to Jehovah—the blood of a lamb, sprinkled upon the door-posts. So in the east to this day the homes of Christians are often marked with a cross on the gate. In Palestine, in 1817, when Shah Hussein's pig-tailed army restored the emperor to his throne for a few days, I saw imperial flags appear at every sign of trouble in these eastern lands resident foreigners display their own national flags as protection. Such an American flag, over the gate of the Presbyterian mission compound in Urmia, Persia, saved the lives of 15,000 Christian Assyrians during the early days of the World war.

Of profound significance is the passage which explains the significance of the Passover: "Jehovah doth make a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel." Not all persons, and not all nations, are alike in the eyes of God. He has chosen peoples, as well as His personal friends. As the Old Testament later declared, "He keepeth the feet of His saints." There is a special Providence for the servants of God. How else can we understand history and the Scriptures? Blood-marked for beneficence was Israel in this beginning of her nationhood. At the sign of the blood of deliverance from Egypt, in these aesthetic days, many persons balk at what they call "blood theology." Their delicate sensibilities are roused by any teaching so crude though blood is the basis of all real life. Committees are at work expunging blood-tinted hymns from the hymnals of the great denominations. No more may our children sing:

"There is a Fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins;
And sinners plunged beneath the flood,
Lose all their guilty stains."

Despite our aestheticism and intellectualism, the truth still abides, for nations as for individuals, that without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sins. As the blood of the Passover lamb assured the escape of the Jews in Egypt, so, as the New Testament declares, "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us."

In An Egyptian Alley. Most bitter, piercing and memorable of all the human cries that ever I heard—more vivid than the memory of the roar of ever more, or the shrill of jackals digging in the graves of an Arabian shrine city—was my first experience with oriental wailing, as I heard it one night in an alley in the poorer quarter of Cairo, many years ago. The crowd knew nothing of vocal grief in comparison with this. Greater than aught I or any other living man, ever has heard, was the wail that went up from the night the destroying angel visited the first-born of high and low. "There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has never been before or shall be any more." Again the record runs: "There was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house, where there was not one dead." Little children and grown men, what ever the age of the first-born, fell beneath this visitation. From marble palace and from mud hovels rose the strill ululations of the women, starting the night birds from the sky, as the God of the Hebrews made His mighty arm upon His enemies. It is a terrible thing to flout the will, and incur the wrath, of the living God.

Meanwhile, safe behind the blood symbol of Providential care, the Jews in their homes kept the new Passover feast with unbroken ranks. They ate unleavened

REPUBLICANS ARE MUSTERING HEAVY ARTILLERY IN OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., July 14.—(AP)—Republican forces marshaled some of their heaviest siege guns into Ohio today for one of the first big broadsides of the presidential campaign.

Heading the list of party leaders were Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley, Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, U. S. Senator Simon D. Fess, Thad H. Brown of the federal radio commission, and Edward Martin, assistant postmaster general.

Hurley, principal speaker before Ohio's Republican platform convention tonight, is expected to vigorously answer for the national administration the acceptance address of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Democratic presidential nominee.

Vying with Hurley's address for the chief interest of the convention was the presentation today or tomorrow of an Ohio platform plank, endorsing the prohibition re-submission stand of the national convention.

Ohio party leaders said the endorsement plank probably will be accepted but not without contest from extremist wets and dries.

COTTON EXPORTS FOR JUNE SHOWS NINTH INCREASE

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—Cotton exports for the ninth consecutive month showed a gain during June as compared with the same month last year.

The department of commerce announced today that cotton exports during June were $30,000,000, as compared with $26,000,000 in June last year. The June exports showed a seasonal decline as compared with May, when $50,000,000 bales were exported.

The seasonal decline occurred in shipments to all principal countries, the department said, with substantial reductions in shipments to the United Kingdom, Italy and Canada. Exports to Greece, Sweden, Portugal and Chile were above those during May.

The local grand jury returned the indictment here before Stewart made the statement. SAYS POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT FORCED PAYMENT SHORTAGE

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—The post office department was accused in the senate today by Senator Coudens (R., Mich.) of "holding a gun" to the heads of Detroit post office employees to make them pay $9,287 embezzled by an employee.

Coudens' attempt to obtain on a house-approved bill repaying the employees was blocked by objections from Senator King (D., Utah).

Coudens told the senate that as the employees' bond fell far short of covering his defalcations, the postmaster general "gave the employees the alternative of quitting or paying up."

The department, he said, "held the guns to their heads and said 'come across' or you will lose your jobs."

The report of the post office department on the bill today by the senate, a clerk in 1926. Mussey, the report said, killed himself. The report, not expressed by Coudens, contended that laxity of Mussey's superiors made embezzlement possible.

Donkhobors Talk About Migrating Canada to Mexico

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., July 14.—(AP)—Rival Donkhobor factions have descended on this city where Peter B. Veregin, their leader, is serving an 18-months jail term, and from the scenes of conferences being held, may some a decision for the Donkhobors, a religious sect, to migrate in a body from Canada to Mexico.

Should such a decision be reached it will, it was said, entail the launching of a business deal involving many millions of dollars.

J. N. Hackney, St. Paul, Minn., of the International Colonization Corporation is here holding himself in readiness to handle the migration, should the plan be proceeded with.

N. S. Crawford of Kerens was in Corsicana Wednesday.

SPORT NOTES

Cleveland Indians moved into the second place in the American league standing Wednesday by drubbing the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-5, in a 10-inning melee. New York won over St. Louis, 5-3, and St. Paul over Cleveland, 4-3, ahead of Cleveland. The Cleveland club is only one point ahead of Philadelphia and the Athletics are only seven points ahead of Detroit.

It looks very much like the Yankees will win the title this year. The Yankees have been consistent and have maintained their lead for many weeks, in fact, have been at the top practically all season. Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia and Washington have been seeing-sawing for the runner-up honors while the Yankees have steadily won and nothing short of a miracle will keep the Yankees from playing in the world's series. It's true it is a long time until the season is concluded, but if the Yankees continue at the pace they have shown for some time they will win the championship this year.

Boston turned on the leading Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday by winning a twin-bill, but Pittsburgh was in toppling the percentage table.

Houston defeated Beaumont Wednesday and Dallas downed Tyler to place the Dallas club within one game of the Beaumonters.

Home Run hitters Wednesday included Ruth, New York Yankees; Burns, St. Louis Browns; Crossett, New York Yankees; Worthington, Boston Braves; Margrave, Boston Braves; Morgan, Cleveland; Simmons, Philadelphia Athletics; McNair, Philadelphia Athletics; Averill, Cleveland; Seeds, Chicago White Sox; Stone, Detroit; James, Dallas; O'Neil, Tyler; Medwick, Houston; 2; Peel, Houston.

Medwick, leading hitter of the Texas league and leader in a number of departments of the league this season, had an important part in the 10-5 triumph of the Houston MBuffs over the Beaumont Exporters Wednesday and hit safely four times in five trips. That don't hit averages a year, two of his clubs were home runs.

There's an argument under way between Galveston and San Antonio, Texas, over the location of the 1936 Olympic stadium. Galveston claims the city is better located for the long view. Galveston claims the only agreement was that they would play until 10:15 p. m. and then San Antonio would take over the stadium. The city of Galveston, 9-0, it is likely the decision will be aired before the Texas league officials.

Louis Cox, Dallas Times-Herald sport writer who is a close follower of the high school races, states in his column Wednesday following the reproduction of what he wrote last Saturday that the arrangement of the schedule between Corsicana and Highland Park and Oak Cliff and Sherman for Sept. 30, that Athletic Director F. Cobb of the Dallas schools has announced that the game was not announced. It took him a long time to decide to announce it, in fact, several months after Highland Park and Corsicana had announced the game for Sept. 30. Why the secrecy in announcing the game if he desired to be fair and square with Corsicana and Highland Park? Corsicana had the game scheduled for a year, Houston and other teams had the Highland Park game not been canceled and that procedure would have probably been followed had Corsicana known that Oak Cliff would be made at the stadium on the same night.

We are not trying to pick a quarrel with the athletic heads of the Dallas public schools, but think that the delay and cancellation have caused "a local school to have been advised earlier had a game been previously arranged in order that Corsicana would have known her plans accordingly. But Corsicana got the better of the argument in getting the Highland Park game arranged first, and that in itself, shows the Dallas officials knew Corsicana and Highland Park had the better claim and right.

Navarro Team Beat Streeterman Nine 13-3

A return game is scheduled in Streeterman Tuesday and Rice is to be played here Wednesday afternoon. A return game scheduled at Rice Thursday.

KING REMANDED TO JAIL WITHOUT BOND IN DYCUS SHOOTING

Olle King of Corsicana was remanded to the Navarro county jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury Wednesday in the shooting of his wife, Mrs. King, by Dycus. King was held in the county jail before Judge Sam B. Jordan, justice of the peace, on a formal complaint for murder in connection with the death of Dycus' wife, Mrs. King, who was shot five times with a shotgun Saturday afternoon near Lake Halbert, several miles southeast of Corsicana. He died in a local hospital Monday morning and the complaint for assault with intent to murder was changed to a murder charge following the death of Dycus.

The examining trial was started Monday but was postponed. The hearing was in the county courtroom Wednesday morning and all seats were taken and the crowd standing in the aisles and sitting in the windows and other points of vantage.

Prior to making known his decision in the case, Judge Jordan stated that he was aware there was considerable feeling in the case and warned those in the courtroom not to make any demonstration. None was made.

KING REMANDED TO JAIL WITHOUT BOND IN DYCUS SHOOTING

Olle King of Corsicana was remanded to the Navarro county jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury Wednesday in the shooting of his wife, Mrs. King, by Dycus. King was held in the county jail before Judge Sam B. Jordan, justice of the peace, on a formal complaint for murder in connection with the death of Dycus' wife, Mrs. King, who was shot five times with a shotgun Saturday afternoon near Lake Halbert, several miles southeast of Corsicana. He died in a local hospital Monday morning and the complaint for assault with intent to murder was changed to a murder charge following the death of Dycus.

COUNTY WIDE PRO ORGANIZATION IS PERFECTED HERE

MASS MEETING AT COURT HOUSE TUESDAY NIGHT LARGELY ATTENDED

Permanent formation of a millitary prohibition organization, countywide in its scope, and affiliated with the state "bone-dry" organization started in Dallas last week, was perfected at a mass meeting held in the county court room at the Navarro county courthouse Tuesday night. C. G. Davidson, of Corsicana was elected permanent chairman and L. K. Carraway of Corsicana was named secretary. This meeting followed a conference between a number of local drys several days ago.

It was made plain that this organization is not a new political affair and the voters will remain with their respective parties, but will center on electing representatives to the legislature and congressmen who are for retention and enforcing of the 18th amendment. Plans were also made for the drys to become active, attend the precinct, county and state conventions and elect friends of prohibition.

Number of Speakers. Among the speakers were C. G. Davidson, H. B. Bonar, Rev. W. C. Corkern, Kereks; Rev. J. W. Bergin, Corsicana; W. M. Wilson, Corsicana; Dr. J. A. Jones, Corsicana; C. Burkhalter, Corsicana; L. E. McCormick, Corsicana; and others.

The invocation was given by Rev. J. W. Bergin, pastor of the First Methodist church. The Bonar spoke on the purpose of the meeting and said that the prohibitionists knew where the preachers and churches stood in the prohibition fight, but that it was the purpose of the organization to become active, stand to carry on the fight and allow the ministers to remain in the background as ministers are about the busiest persons in a community if they are attending their jobs as pastors.

He said the purpose of the meeting was to elect men and women who are staunch prohibitionists and will work for the retention and enforcement of the 18th amendment.

"We are not interested in parties or politics, but want officials who are four-square for prohibition," Bonar declared.

The speaker urged the prohibitionists to attend the precinct conventions, July 23 and see that none except prohibitionists are elected to the county conventions and that county officers let men and women constitute the executive committee along with the president and secretary.

Representatives were present from four wards, Corsicana, Zion's Rest, White's Chapel, Kereks and Drane.

Chairman Davidson was empowered to select leaders to perfect the organization in the various precincts. The chair said this committee would be appointed later.

A finance committee composed of T. J. Walton, W. M. Wilson, D. Johnson and E. F. Watkins all of Corsicana; and Howell Brister of Kereks, was appointed.

A pamphlet containing a statement of Atticus Webb on Wet and Dry Stand and National officers was passed out to the audience, giving replies from a number of the candidates to questions propounded them.

SENATOR GLASS IN MOVE FOR REPEAL PROHIBITION LAW

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(P)—Senator Glass (D., Va.) in the senate today proposed a new amendment to the constitution to repeal the 18th amendment but to prohibit sale of liquor in saloons or transportation into any states where it was unlawful.

Long a supporter of the present amendment, the Virginian sought immediate consideration for his proposed substitute. As this you block the amendment, however, by Senator Norris (R., Neb.) objection.

The proposed Glass amendment would be inoperative unless ratified by 36 state conventions within seven years after its adoption. Its text follows:

"Section 1—Article XVIII or the amendments to this constitution is hereby repealed.

"The sale of intoxicating liquors within the United States or any territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for consumption at the place of sale (commonly known as saloons) by law as here prohibited. The congress and the several states, territories, and possessions

CORSICANA, TEX., JULY 15, 1932.

OPPORTUNITY AT THE DOOR.

It is a pleasing idea that Opportunity knocks at every man's door. Some day may be a bright-minded historian with a turn for use of conspicuous language will contend that Opportunity in the year of grace 1932 was whamming away at the door of the American people with sledge-hammer. And though every last individual in the country possessed of a grain of sense recognized the knock, the combined wisdom of the whole bunch, including politicians, statesmen, economists, financiers, educators and the professional givers of advice seemed unable to get the door open.

What are some of the evidences Opportunity offers for identification? Well, as everyone knows, there has been a decided slowing down in buying on the part of the average man and family for the past three years. During that period there must have been a vast amount of wearing out and obsolescence going on in the goods in every day use. A list like that of a tariff schedule would be required merely to name the classes of things that must have been disappearing, becoming useless or undesirable.

Meanwhile immense ingenuity has been exercised to provide new and tempting things for replacements. The automobiles of today are vastly better than ever. Comparable units are offered for much less money and they should be selling beyond all records of the past. Radios are marvelously improved in tone quality and in every desirable feature and no American home should be without a radio in these modern days.

In a recent radio address Fred W. Sargent, speaking under auspices of the American Taxpayers' League, said, "We hear much about the old frontiers having passed forever and that there is now no new territory to develop such as rescued the country from previous panics. The truth is that we are standing on the verge of the greatest frontier of all—the frontier of inadequate comforts, conveniences and luxuries for the great masses of our people, and all this in the midst of plenty. What we need is to re-establish faith and courage and credit."

GOVERNMENTAL FIVE-DAY WEEK.

Beginning July 1 every employe of California earning $100 a month or over went on a five-day week basis of work. This is the state's choice among three alternatives necessitated by a 20 per cent decrease in income, the others being pay cuts without diminution of working time, and cutting off completely the income of some workers in order that others might enjoy normal working power.

The course pursued is the course of justice, and doubtless that which any worker could elect unless he felt that the ax his job would be regarded as immune. The available work is so meager there is opportunity for its just distribution. There is no justice in cutting off the source of livelihood of one group of workers to permit others, who are no more deserving than they, to escape the pinch of poverty.

The government has come to the five-day week. The federal government is about to do the same. The fact that California falls into line would not be without importance to other political groups. The declining of the curtail payroll

JUST FOLKS

SYMPATHY
 I do not mind my pains and
 I fancy I can brave them through.
 The burden of my own mistakes
 Sets me to try anew.

But, oh, to see a friend in pain
 Seems more than I can bear,
 When I in strength stand by in vain.

And cannot help him there.

And, oh, to feel another's woes
 And helpless be to aid
 Stings deeper than the lashing blow.

Which on my back is laid.

'Tis deepest torture to behold
 The pain a child endures,
 And standing there so strong and bold.

Wish the harsh pain were yours.

A CHANGE IN EUROPE

The Belgium-Netherlands-Luxembourg scheme for reducing tariffs 10 per cent a year would not be of great importance were it not indicative of a change of mind and heart which is coming over Europe. Belgium is the third country on Holland's shopping list; she trades in greater volume only with Germany and Great Britain. Holland is Belgium's third buyer and seller, exceeded by France and Great Britain. Belgium uses Holland's dairy products, and raw materials imported from the Dutch colonies. Holland uses Belgium's manufactures. Better accommodation in tariff rates will mean greater trade.

But reports keep coming, not from Lausanne, but from various capitals, and particularly from Berlin, to the effect that further agreements are to be expected. There is a disposition to lower tariff barriers where there are no important political factors to be considered. The Scandinavian countries, with a watchful eye on the approaching Imperial Conference at Ottawa, would like to make a reciprocal arrangement with Great Britain. There are hints that Germany and France would like to hook up in a deal for lower duties; and if that is possible, then the Danubian states should be able to work out a plan for better mutual trade not only with one another, but with the more important countries that decide on a decreasing tariff scale.

The higher-tariff scheme has been given a fair trial throughout Europe, and it has led only to falling trade and the goal of bankruptcy. Now a movement in the opposite direction has been begun by three little countries—two of them, however, important world traders—without a hint of anything but benevolence on the part of the greater powers. The German report says there is more activity under the surface than diplomats are ready to acknowledge, and that a real attempt to reorganize European trade, finances and stability has begun. May it proceed for that way lies first hope, later the return of prosperity.

Meanwhile, let us remember that we have held out to Europe something that should not prove to be merely an empty word. We have said that if Europe will set her house in order, we shall be ready to consider what we can do to help. The return of normal prosperity to Europe, provided it is accompanied by assurances means much to us. If a new spirit of friendliness and mutual accommodation is to be the fruit of Lausanne, we can well afford to make whatever concessions appear necessary to help develop it and extend it throughout the world.

POSTAL SAVINGS GROWTH

Postal savings deposits, which in April attained the unprecedented total of $713,000,000, 16 months previously stood at $164,276,392. The period of their rapid and tremendous increase was the period of failing banks and depositor distrust. In the 13 months terminated January 31 last nearly half a billion dollars poured into the post-office—obviously the most of it being money which had been in the hands of banking institutions at higher rates of interest than the government pays.

On February 8 the Reconstruction Finance Corporation began to function. The epidemic of bank failures was stopped. The reaction of this phenomena on small capital became immediately evident. Postal savings banks deposits in January had been $60,000,000. In February with confidence restored after nearly a third of the month had passed, the postal savings accretions dropped to $25,000,000. In March they further fell to $13,000,000. In April they rose but slightly to $16,586,000. The rate of augmentation in the two full months of R. F. C. operations is about two-fifths of the rate that prevailed in the 14 preceding months.

It is not probable that the growing postal savings are now coming from banks, except in so far as some of the money which ordinarily would have been deposited in banks is being entrusted to the government. As it flows through government hands back into the banks the effect on credit is inappreciable. The significance of the figures is that savers are rapidly recovering confidence in banking stability.

HEAT.

By far the best way to deal with excessively hot weather is to snub it. Be contemptuous and superior. Pretend that you aren't aware of its presence. A considerable reserve of philosophy and common sense is necessary to this way of escape from the extreme discomforts of summer in this climate. But the fact remains that agitation and feverish attention to leaping thermometers has the effect of making heat seem hotter than it really is.

If you cannot snub the weather, if you are one of those who have indignant convictions about it, do the next best thing. Keep on the shady sides of streets. Eat lightly. Wear the lightest and loosest garments you have. Avoid stress and hurry. Then the doctors will be less likely to get you.

NO LONGER YOUTH.

As he receives congratulations on his thirty-eighth birthday, the Prince of Wales begins to be recognized as a business man of substance and serious intentions rather than as a matrimonial opportunity or a temptation to all amateur matchmakers. No prince of any realm ever took the responsibilities of office more seriously. But he has wisely interpreted them in terms of the times and has apparently dedicated himself wholeheartedly to the restoration of England's commercial prestige, rather than to an ideal of imperialism. He works hard, talks a deal of good sense and definitely discourages all efforts to weave romantic legends around him.

Girls of all nations will re-litish with regret the picture of the prince as the most eligible young man of his times. But though he is so persistently a bachelor he can scarcely be considered a young one any longer. He is middle-aged indeed, though the appearance, outlook and manner of youth still stay with him. And undoubtedly he holds and increases the respect and affection with which he is regarded by those who may some day call him king.

FASHION NOTE.

How a woman making a political speech should dress is likely to be the subject of considerable anxious thought during the summer and autumn. Greater latitude of the costume of men is allowed now than a few years ago. It used to be necessary for a man to wear a frock coat and an ascot tie with a standing collar. Nowadays political orators wear what in the old days was called a cutaway coat, and if they are indifferent dressers they appear in an ordinary business suit with a turn-down collar.

Mrs. Mary T. Norton, representative in congress from a New Jersey district, who was the keynote at the democratic state convention in Trenton, set the style for her sister political orators. She wore a tight-fitting hat, a necklace, a gown with cape sleeves, white gloves, a ribbon and a smile. But if the other women orators do not follow her example literally it is not likely that the party leaders will worry much about it.

We don't know whether crime movies cause crime or not, but they certainly cause other crime movies.

SUGGESTIONS TO VOTERS GIVEN BY COUNTY COMMITTEE

The following suggestions relative to the approaching election have been secured from the office of the Navarro county Democratic executive committee:

Let every voter now look up his or her poll tax receipt. This will lessen the work on your election judges and clerks, and will guarantee a vote.

In the city of Corsicana no person can vote save those whose names are upon the poll lists. Therefore, if you have not now on the lists, if you live in the city, you must get to get it on these poll lists. This matter ought to be attended to prior to July 19, as on this date the tax collector furnishes the committee the supplemental lists. Let every voter do his or her duty and be prepared to vote with as little trouble to the election judges as possible.

It is expected that complete returns from Navarro county will be in prior to midnight of primary election day. That has been the record for the primaries of 1928 and 1930, and we want to repeat the performance this time. Our precinct chairmen are all loyal and enthusiastic and are giving of their time patriotically to the end that the voice of the people may be heard and fairly expressed and the will of the majority registered in this election.

We therefore urge each voter to get ready. Get the poll tax receipt or exemption ready, and by all means get to the polls with you. Do not require the election officials to make out affidavits, etc.

Some confusion has arisen about absentee voting. It is only when the voter expects to be out of the county on election day that an absentee ballot can be received by the county clerk. Please bear this in mind. Do not try to vote "absent" unless you are leaving the county. If you are in the county on election day, your absentee ballot might not be valid, if the matter were contested, so take no chance. If you are an invalid in the county, you can be taken to the polls and vote. The county clerk has no right to go out and take absentee ballots simply because one is an invalid or confined by illness. It is only when the voter expects to be out of town on election day that an absentee vote is authorized.

From time to time for the next few days, pertinent suggestions concerning election matters will be given the readers of this paper along with the political news of the county. Watch for these. The main idea now offered is: Get ready to vote. Do not vote absentee unless you will be out of the county for the period of time of three days before and on election day. Take no chance.

The candidates are making a beautiful campaign. "No mud-slinging." Each seeks preferment on his or her own qualifications and merits. This is as it should be.

R. R. Owen, acting secretary to the Navarro County Democratic executive committee.

ORDERS FOR MANY CANS OF PRODUCE ALREADY RECEIVED

Eight orders each for 100 cans of Navarro county products had been received at the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce office at noon Tuesday, and one farm woman had called at the office and received her complement of cans, officials of the organization announced today.

According to the plans outlined, the city will be divided into districts and a house-to-house canvass made.

Among those attending the meeting Tuesday were Mrs. Mable Brillhart, general chairman; Mrs. I. N. Suttie, Miss Marguerite Garitty, Mrs. Francis B. McKie, Mrs. Will Thompson, Mrs. L. K. FLAMES DESTROYED DAIRY AND HAY BARN

ODD FELLOWS HOME

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the dairy and hay barn at the I. O. O. F. Widows and Orphans Home three miles west of Corsicana Monday night about 10 o'clock with a loss estimated at approximately $15,000. Insurance in the amount of $8,000 was carried on the loss.

The barn was in a mass of flames when the watchman and children in one of the dormitories discovered the fire. The Corsicana fire department responded to the call for assistance. Ross G. Harris, superintendent, announced Tuesday morning that the barn cost between $17,000 and $18,000 when it was erected in 1928. He estimated the building cost $12,500. It was destroyed by fire, including hay, oats and other supplies destroyed are estimated at between $1,500 and $2,500 loss. An empty silo was also burned.

The building will likely be rebuilt in the near future although no official announcement had been made Tuesday. Hundreds of automobiles of people were attracted to the scene of the fire.

THINGS TO IMPROVE

The Stay-at-Home
Miss Forbes plan an exciting evening for the stay-at-home girl today. She has a whole evening full of things for her to do, to improve her looks, which cost almost nothing and do not take much time either.

There are some things about your appearance which you can begin to improve this evening. Are you staying at home this evening? If you are, splendid! spend it in beautifying yourself.

Rub your skin with oil, or cleansing cream (lard or any of the white cooking fats will do). Then hold hot wet cloths over the face until all the oiliness and dirt have gone. Then rub some massage cream and let it stay there. Have a hot bath, with lots of bran or epsom salts in the water. The effects of this will be noted at once, for it will clear the skin and make it fine.

Re-shape your eyebrows, unless they are already a perfect shape. The cold cream makes this an easy task, the hairs come out easily.

Buy yourself one of those handy little squares, made of fine emery, and rub gently over the skin, first powdering the skin thickly with talcum, until you have worn off all the superfluous hair from the arms and legs. If there are many hairs on the legs, shave instead, and shave under the arms. Do all this before the bath. The softened bath water is soothing, and after your exertions, it will be pleasant to lie and soak in the heat, which relaxes you. If you have time, shampoo your hair with it "set" under a water-waving cap, while you are in the bath.

After the bath, wipe the cream from the face and rub the skin with ice, paying special attention to the under part of the chin. You will be astonished, when you have dried yourself and your hair, how well you look. With a clear skin, rosy, fresh, with clear eyes, nicely shaped eyebrows, no ugly hairs growing where they are unsightly, you'll be another person. After the bath is a good time to cut the toenails, too, to clean under them, and to shave down your corns. Rub toe and finger nails with cold cream after the bath.

Esther F.—The tiny lines you have found resulting from the skin blanching are temporary and will disappear just as soon as the skin recovers from this extreme dryness at this time. A girl of 20 could not have lines in her skin except under some such circumstances as yours at present.

Mrs. B.—You will be able to purchase bluing at most of the beauty parlors, but the powdered or cake of bluing sold for laundry purposes will do just as well for the rinse after a shampoo. If you are using henna as a shampoo or as a paste, you may add the bluing to the henna powder, and the effect will be just a slight darkening of the henna shade. The blue rinse is helpful when white hair has a tendency to turn to a yellow shade. You will have to add a dye to the auburn color if you must have a dark auburn color.

Mrs. B. L.—As you have given your hands such severe treatment for years, you will have to give them unusual care for a long time before they recover and look as well as the hands of these other women you mention. Begin with your nails and have a manicure, for that will not be a difficult procedure for you to repeat yourself at home; or at least one that you can keep from spoiling day by day, if you intend to have the professional manicure done for you regularly. Train yourself to wear rubber gloves for some of your housework and rub cream or oil into your hands and nails before putting on the gloves. Bleach off stains with lemon juice and keep a bottle of any honey and almond mixture handy to rub into the skin after the hands have been immersed in water for a long time.

lay on the new unemployment tax bill and congressional conference recessed without agreement.

The conference, which sponsors of the bill had predicted would reach agreement within an hour, broke after three hours and a half to meet again later today. Failure of the conferees to reach compromise on the half dozen differences in the $2,100,000,000 bill caused the conferees to generate virtually precluded the chance of final action before tomorrow.

The big obstacles proved to be the provision inserted in the house bill by Speaker Garner requiring a 20 percent increase in the tax on profits or public use on all loans made hereafter by the Reconstruction corporation, including advances to banks.

Congress Working Hard Complete Bill

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—The conference committee today convened a lusty infant—the new $2,100,000,000 relief bill—to President Hoover, its god-father, and go home this week.

Only two days old, the measure, which Speaker Garner's conferees and Democrats had both house and senate sanction. As is usual with and not taken final form and the moulding process was left to the representing senate and house ideas.

The house had voted 284 to 20 to let the youngster go to the college without carrying permits for the sale of private individuals. Although some administration followers thought this would be a bad precedent, it came from the White House, Secretary Mills and Governor Eugene Meyer of the Federal Reserve bank did not object.

Both the house and senate had agreed to the idea of compelling Reconstruction Finance corporation to publish lists of persons who had been broken down in 1918-1919 of this price.

The new measure would increase the capital of the corporation from $2,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

NAVARRO COUNTY FARMERS EXCHANGE OPEN SATURDAY, 23D

EVERY EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO CONTACT THOSE WITH PRODUCTS TO TRADE

Opening of a Navarro County Farmers' Exchange on July 23 was announced by the agricultural committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce Thursday after several days of preparation and investigation of the working of the plan in other communities.

The exchange will be located on the Fred M. Allison property on North Tenth street, adjoining the former site of the Mitten Livery Stable, and more recently used as a municipal market site. Mr. Allison has contributed the use of the site to the sponsors of the project.

Under the present plan, listings will be made of the offerings of farmers of all parts of the county and every effort made to cause merchandise desirable to others. No charge will be made for the service. In addition on specified dates, "market days" will be held at the exchange similar to the old "First Monday" trades affairs.

Members of the committee urge that farmers of Navarro county list with the Chamber of Commerce the machinery, livestock, or farm products which they may desire to trade along with some of their needs or an idea of what will be acceptable to them in trade. These lists will be posted or distributed as generally as possible.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF BRITISH EMPIRE TO MEET IN OTTAWA ON BUSINESS

By C. L. MORRISON
(Associated Press Cable Editor).
NEW YORK, July 14.—(AP)—The Imperial economic conference which opens at Ottawa July 21 is really a meeting of the board of directors of the British empire. Things have changed since the days before the war and, like every other large corporation, the empire must seek new sources of income and new markets for its goods.

In the old days the mother country could count on a large income from loans made abroad. She sold her goods where she could and bought where the price was best. The dominions also bought in the open market and sold wherever they could find a buyer.

But now England is paying instead of collecting. It is harder to find a market for goods. The dominions have shown a tendency to assert a larger measure of independence. They, too, are having their troubles in keeping out of the red.

So Great Britain is going to Ottawa in the hope of making business deal with Canada, oldest of the dominions; South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and New Foundland, India, hoping to learn something to her advantage, will be represented although she is not yet of dominion status. The Irish Free State also will attend.

The most important thing which came out of the last imperial conference at London in 1920 was the statute of Westminster, an act of parliament which renounced forever the right of the mother country to veto or override legislation of the dominions. It severed almost the last formal bond which bound the dominions to Great Britain, leaving only the oath of allegiance to the king. Now the Free State wants to abolish that, in its present form.

For many years 70 per cent of the imports into the British Isles have come from countries outside the British empire. If the dominions will buy more from the mother country, England can return the favor by taking a greater part of her imports from the dominions.

The idea is for Great Britain to give the dominions, and to receive from them, either low tariffs or no tariffs at all, but that is not so easy as it sounds.

At this conference Great Britain will be in a position which she never has occupied before. She is a tariff country now, having abandoned the traditional Free State policy in a heroic effort to straighten out the financial condition at home.

CORSICANANS PLACE ORDERS FOR CANNED PRODUCTS OF FARM

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE SEEKING CAP- ABLE RURAL CANNERS

With orders from Corsicana residents for canned farm products coming in rapidly, officials of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce reported Thursday that they were anxious to find a number of Navarro county farmers who had products to fill the cans available and also to find a number of Navarro county women who would fill the cans on the agreed basis.

Only preliminary reports have been received from the ladies' committee which has started a survey of the city to ascertain the number of cans of farm products needed and desired by Corsicana housewives, but committee members believe that a large quantity of farm products that might otherwise be lost can be salvaged through this plan.

Persons desiring canned products may secure details from the Chamber of Commerce, which will also accept the orders for cans, and pass them along to the farmers.

Farm women of Navarro county, particularly those who are or were formerly members of Home Demonstration Club canning circles, who will assist in the project are asked to notify the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

Murray Secretary Throws Support to Unknown Teacher

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 14.—(AP)—Claude Weaver, secretary to Governor William O. Murray and an unsuccessful candidate for Congress-at-large at the first democratic primary, threw his support today to Will Rogers, schoolmaster who surprised politicians by leading the ticket.

Rogers meets Mrs. Mabel Bassett, state's charities and corrections commissioner, long a foe of the Murray administration, in the run-off primary July 28.

Weaver wrote friends he did not desire to dictate to them but that he would vote for Rogers, whom he considered "an honorable and upright man, self educated and qualified for the job."
